

Invitation

TO THE GALLERY'S MEMBERSHIP

We are glad that you decided to join Heartland Artists. We are a productive group. We sponsor one of the largest juried art shows in the area, offer art classes for adults and children through Heartland School of Art, have an art supply store, work on a number of community projects, work at increasing interest and appreciation for the arts in Marshall County, and we encourage, support and inspire each other. You might say, we have a passion for art!

As an involved member and to get the most out of being a Heartland artist these are the people to contact:

Docent: June Pullen 574-935-9610

Opportunities AND OUR MISSION Shared

- ~ The artists and members of Heartland Artists work in a wide range of media: watercolor, oil, photography, glass fused to copper, fabric, pottery, jewelry, gourds, mixed media, ink, pastels, etc.
- ~ Some members Painted 3' Blueberry sculptures in downtown Plymouth.
- ~ We work with Marshall County schools to exhibit students' art in the spring.
- ~ We collaborate with the Marshall County Historical Museum and MoonTree Studios on special projects.
- ~ We joined with Plymouth's Chamber of Commerce to host the 2nd Art in the Street Event.
- ~ We host two annual juried shows.
- ~ We offer classes for children and adults through the Heartland School of Art.
- ~ Each month we invite an accomplished artist from Northern Indiana to display their work to our community.
- ~ We are proud to display the artwork of our own members who change out their collections bi-monthly. It is gratifying to see the variety of talent in accomplished artists in our own backyard.
- ~ Experience and share art with all its rewards at Heartland Artists Gallery.
