

Art Festival, Calling all Artists

Heartland Artists are sponsoring the fourth annual 'Art in the Street' June 23, 2018, from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. on Michigan Ave. in downtown Plymouth, Indiana Sign in at Heartland Artists Gallery, 101 N. Michigan Ave.

Deadline for securing your booth space (10x12') is only $30 before June 1. If there are spaces remaining after that date, will be $35. No commission will be charged. All media is welcome: watercolors, oils, acrylics, pastels, sculptures, jewelry, photography, mixed media, etc. Artists must have their own tents and display set ups. All artwork must be the creation of the artist; no mass produced articles allowed. Heartland Artists retain the right not to accept any artist whose work is not suitable for family viewing. There are no electric hook-ups. Set up - between 8:30 - 10 a.m.; streets will be blocked at that time. Send form, check and photography of some of your work to Heartland (address below) or email application photos to jaynejacobson@gmail.com.

Also occurring in downtown Plymouth is the Farmers' Market until 11:30 a.m. Saturday. There will be food vendors and music throughout the day. Join us for 'Art in the Street'!
